

FREE on-line PREVIEW!
Sign in at www.mcintyre.ca

Romeo and Juliet: Live from Shakespeare's Globe

College/Univ 2009 2 hours 51 min Films for the Humanities
The play's masterful combination of lyricism, suspense, and dramatic changes of mood is dramatized by an energetic cast that stars Adetomiwa Edun—called “a Romeo to die for” by The Independent (London)—and, in her stage debut as Juliet, Ellie Kendrick. Directed by Dominic Dromgoole.
#393886DV $189.95: DVD

Becoming Me: The Gender Within

College/Univ 2009 40 min Films for the Humanities
2009 Telly Award, Education (for academic use)
2009 Telly Award, Social Issues
In this Telly Award-winning program, five transgendered individuals between the ages of 20 and 50 speak openly about what it has meant to them to be transgendered—their first experiences of gender confusion, life after coming out, family responses, and more.
#393893DV $189.95: DVD, web guide

Heartfield: Father of the Photomontage

College/Univ 2009 51 min Films for the Humanities
This biographical program begins in Heartfield's native Berlin and progresses through his painful childhood, his involvement in the Dadaist movement, his friendships with Bertolt Brecht and George Grosz, and his active stance against Hitler's Nazi regime through his provocative photomontages. (Portions in German with English subtitles, 51 minutes)
#393895DV $189.95: DVD

Music of the Brain

College/Univ 2009 56 min Films for the Humanities
This documentary examines the role music plays in shaping our brains and improving our well-being.
#393887DV $189.95: DVD

The Quantum Tamers: Revealing Our Weird and Wired Future

College/Univ 2009 52 min Films for the Humanities
Prix Audace Award Winner at the 2009 Pariscience International Science Film Festival
Best of Show: Feature Documentary, 2009 Accolade Competition, La Jolla, California
Beginning with a condensed history of classical and quantum physics to contextualize the current state of quantum science, this highly visual program takes viewers to the frontiers of quantum computation.
#393891DV $189.95: DVD

The Biofuel Myth: Harsh Realities in the Developing World

College/Univ 2009 44 min Films for the Humanities
This program examines the global dilemma over palm oil—a fuel source championed by the European Union before the effects of its cultivation became apparent in the developing world.
$189.95: DVD

Pre-Islamic Persia: The Forgotten Glory

College/Univ 2009 43/52 min Films for the Humanities
This two-part series explores the history and architecture in the Province of Fars during the Achaemenid and Sassanid Empires. Filmed in present-day Iran, this series is a visually stunning view of the region's ancient and glorious past.

Birth of a Nation: The Acquisitions and Achievements of the Achaemenid Empire

#393889DV $189.95: DVD

Renaissance of Glory: The Rise and Fall of the Sassanid Empire

#393890DV $189.95: DVD

Case Studies in Childhood Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder

College/Univ 2009 38 min Films for the Humanities
This edition of Primetime tracks the treatment of Bridget, Rocco, and Michelle as they attempt to reclaim their lives and overcome the stigma associated with the disorder. Can they subdue a condition that consumes their every waking moment and utterly disrupts their families? Original ABC News broadcast title: Kids Battle Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder.
#393894DV $169.95: DVD

SuperFreakonomics with Levitt and Dubner

College/Univ 2009 39 min Films for the Humanities
In this ABC News program, SuperFreakonomics authors Steven D. Levitt and Stephen J. Dubner give the concept of cause and effect a whack on the head. In a whirlwind round of 20 questions, Levitt and Dubner make forays into the worlds of business, education, health care, environmental science, and psychology. Original broadcast title: 20 Questions You Never Thought to Ask.
#393883DV $189.95: DVD

Available in Canada from:

tel: 800-565-3036

fax: 519-942-8489

email: info@mcintyre.ca

www.mcintyre.ca